Will the Journal care assert that, lects of the country," delivery was at length in such a case, submission would be better and safely accomplished, to the great joy of many more honorable than secession? It will not. And sympathizing neighbors and friends. The result yet the whole drift of its slang against Southern of this interesting acconchment is a rather pony extremely ill-favored, in fact having a striking to any injustice—any insult or oppression that derous infant, feeble and rickety, and we regret resemblance to the father, who is known to be a dominant anti-slavery faction might choose to one of the ugliest of his species. - The fond father should see that his puny offspring is narsed with the greatest possible care, or its death will be as sudden as its birth was premature and painful. We advise that a speedy consultation at the most knowing and experienced doctors be hal, in order, it possible, to impart a little vigor to and improve the looks of the frail progeny. We have taken a look at it, and we do not hestate to say that it was a false conception and a most feelile one at that.

But seriously, the Jonenal's long and labored articles about "disunionists" are very impotent and harmless-mere rant and twattle. Under the guice of devotion and friendship to the Union is conce led the most odions and dangerous form of Abelitionism-that is, Southern Abelitionism -which always assumes a false face. It is the voice of Jacob, but it is the hand of Esau.

This or slaught upon the Southern Democracy as disunionists is all for the purpose of deception. The whier I is to alarm the timid and ignorant, and mislead them to their own hart. The Union, as the Journal says, is indeed in the "utmost peril " No one knows better than the editor of the Journal whence that danger arises. But he is determined that the people of the South shall brought this danger upon the country, if in his trespil and Abolition factions and their allies, the Know-Nothing leaders. It is thus that Republicans and Abolitionists of the Louisville Journal, a model Sonthern organ, has no vials of wrath for them like those he is accustomed to pour upon the heads of Democrats-is rather disposed to be gentle and forbearing toward them-is slow to denounce them, while he turns furiously upon certain Democrats and Old-line Whigs of the South and calls them 'traitors,' ''nullifiers " and "disunionists. ' trument efforts came on a few days since and ject submission to Abolition usurpation and mis-Democrats goes to show, that its editor would have the slave States bow their necks and submit perpetrate, sooner than separate from a Union then no longer either honorable or advantageous. The Journal's doctrine is, that oppression of Nobody, we suppose, will pretend to say that Thomas Jefferson was not a wise, great, and patriotic man, and a true possible exigency that could justify a separation of States from the federal Union? This apostle of liberty, and staunch advocate of the rights of the States says, Cors. vol. 4., page 417: "They (the legislators of Virginia) would indeed States) as among the greatest national calamities which could befall them; but not the greatest. the hope of avoiding this shall become absolutely desperate, that further forbearance could not be indulged." Mr. Jefferson was no disunionist nor do we lution of our invaluable Union. We consider to submit to the election of Fremont, because his such a dissolution as he did, an evil of the most nomination was a purely sectional nomination, fearful magnitude. We quote him to show that which, on its very face ignored the rights and our fathers recognized the right of secession is the existence of the slave States; that the Re- a last resort for liberty and self-preservation, I il han nomination was, of itself, just cause of as apportaining to each and every State; but, at alorm, and that the election of that ticket would the same time, a right the exercise of which should involve the fate of the Union. River Items.

A keelboat, laden principally with dry goods, arrived from Cincinnati yesterday morning onsigned to I. S. Moorhead.

The following river items we repy from the St. Louis Intelligencer: Riverstill falling both above and below, with ut the least prospect for a rise. No important change to notice in any of the upper streams. Five feet scant to Cairo continues to be reported.

The weather yesterday was clear and cool. The Die Vernon, that arrived from New Orleans ast evening, brought up Captain Berkett's comany of Mississippines bound for Kausas. The inpany numbers about one hundred.

STEAMBOAT ACCIDENT .- The Sallie West on her last downward trip, ran on a rock near Chester and sustained some damage. She was bound for Memphis, but put out her cargo at Cairo, and came in yesterday without freight. The damage The Democratic party is an old and tried party, to the hull is not of a serious nature, and can be repaired to-day by means of a side-dock. AN OUTRAGE BY A POLITICAL PRIEST -A. COTpondent sends us the following communication on from Charleston, O. If the facts are as stated riest' ought to be held up to deserved ob loony and scorn and kicked out of the pulpit as nes possible, as being morally unfit for the

At a meeting of the Black Republicans, held South Charleston (1., on Thursday, September 1), a circumstance occurred that is regarded as delestable by all who do not belong to that class of divines who blasschemed against the Kansas and Nebraska territorial bill. It can be told in A reverend, meeting one of his most devoutand truly christian members, who was passing silently through a crowd assembled at the corners of one of the streets, accested him thus: 'You my friend, are member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and a chris tian, and are well acquainted with the discipline of our church; then, how dare you ever vote for James Euchanau?" But, what has caused a greater abhorrence is the fact that the gentleman accosted is about sixty-five years old, an old grey-headed man, whose furrowed cheek and wrickled brow denote that he has spent many years in the service of his Master; and now, in his declining years, that he may be censured and insulted by his own minister, a man of only twenty-five years, has not only deeply effected his own feelings, but those of a large circle of friends and relatives."—Con. Enquirer.

A True Non of Love. REV. MR. BRYANTS "POLITICAL SHRMON."-The public mind was considerably aroused last week by the impression gaining ground that the Rev. Mr. Bryant, of the Presbylerian church, was to preach an electioneering sermon. Last Sabhatl and a house full, and he did preach an elecioneering sermon -such a one as ministers of the gospel ought to preach. He said :

"I leave to others the duty of presenting the laims of the different Presidential candidates in the field and of publicly arguing the principles involved. This is not my province. I have a higher election eering service to perform. There another election ordered in our world, the anvass of which is now going on, which more deeply concerns our dearest interests and welfare an any Presidential election possibly can, owever great the questions to be decided.

He then goes on showing that God from Heayn has ordered the election upon which he paks, and that God calls upon every man to chouse whom he will serve, or, in other words, to vote for whom he will have to be his spiritua didates in the field-" Jesus Christ, the devil, He then proceeded to electioneer for and man.' Horrible and Fiendish Assassination.

MARION, TEXAS, Sept. 4. One of those revolting assassinations at which the heart sickens, and which have become as common in these days of enormity, was committed in this county on the night of the 20th ult.

The victims were A. E. Moore, Esq., his wife, and a lovely orphan girl, twelve years old, who was, by adoption, one of the family. They had just scated themselves at the supper table in the entry of their house, when the assessin, coolly fixing a rest for his gun by propping a hoard between the two stems of an althea twenty steps from the table, and in full view of his upsu ing victims, discharged at them a double barreled gun. At the first fire Moore felt. His wife, who sat on his left, exclaimed, "Lord have mercy! and at that instant received the contents of second gun, fired in quick succession. She feinstantly, and the orphan girl, who was seated on Moore's right, and between Mr. Moore and as arein, sprang into the hours and called for camphor, but before the servants could get to shattered and the hand shot through. He lived a few minutes, but never spoke. Mis. Moore received four shots in the face, and never remed to have breathed after she fell. A single shot struck the young girl a little to the lest of the spine, passed through the heart, and, coming out at the less nipple, lodged in her clothes. I have this shot in my po. c. ion; it is evidently a slug.
The coroner's inquest did not elicit anything sufficient to found an arrest upon .- New Orlean.

A few days since a Kentuckian came to this city for the purpose of making sale of some tobacco. He called at a certain store, the proprietor of which, after examining the tobacco, pronounced it a good article, and stated to the vender that he was in want of some, "but," continued he "I cannot purchase of you."

"Why not?" asked the other.

"Because you are a Southerner," was the reply. "This circumstance, having gained the ear of a negro worshipper, he annonneed it at a meeting of the Rlack Republican Club, where upon three deafening cheers were given for the Columbus merchant.

STILL LEAVING THE FOUL PARTY!

We ask the earnest and attentive consideration of Kentuckians and Southern men to the following able and conclusive letter from George D. Gray, Esq., President of the Fillmore and D. Gray, Esq., President of the Fillmore and Donelson Club at Culpepper, Va., a gentleman who had been one of the most active and efficient K. N's in Virginia, but who is now constrained serious transfer of the most active and efficient control of the most active and efficient control of the most active and efficient control of the most active and efficient wishes for your rindividual happiness and presperity, I am, with great respect, your friend and obedient serious control of the most active and affine and af to east aside party feelings and give his vote and influence ir favor of the Democratic party, which is now the only hope for the country: having recently refuted and greatly enlarged their To the Fill nore and Donelson Club of Culpepper GENTLEMEN. At the first meeting of your Club, held more than a mouth since, you did me the hon-or to elect me your President, much against my own wishes. I then stated to you, as you will re-member, both before and after my election that I reserved to myself the right to vote for Mr. Buchan-an should hencetter here the state of the an should I thereafter become convinced in my own mind that Mr. Fillmore had no chance for an election, and that the contest for the Presidency of the United States was between Mr. Buchanan and Mr. Fremont. That contingency has happened. I am now thoroughly convinced that there is not a shad-ow of a chance for Mr. Fillmore's election by the

This is conceded, indeed, by his warmest friends but it is contended by some of them that he will get States enough to prevent any election by the people, and thus throw the chance of President upon the House of Representatives—an event greatly to be deplored at a times, but more especially so now, when it is remembered that the election must be made by the same House that elected N. P. Banks, of Massachusetts, their Speaker. They then a reco only: "We learn from a gentleman in Christian county that he was offered $10 average for his growing ground tobacco."

I of Massachusetts, their Speaker. They then argue that Mr. Fillmore has the best chance of an election by the Honse of Representatives. Let us see how they arrive at this wonderful conclusion. It takes sixteen States to make an election. Mr. Fil more has only three in Congress—Delaware, Mary-land and Kennacky. If the three parties stand the National Hotel. A better officer could not firm by their c; ididates, there can be no election by the House. In this event the Vice President, whose election will a 701vc npon the Senate, will be the President of the United States ex officio. The Senate being largely Democratic, will of course elect Mr. Breckinridge, who will then be our Presi

It is gravely argued by these friends of Mr. Fillmore, that the Black Republican party, rather than see Mr. Breckinrides President will all unite on Mr. tion, to fill a vacancy made in the faculty by the resignation of Dr. W. Miller.

He made an eloquent and very effective speech. Ind.ed, it is said to than this for the determination to which I have come a er long and serious reflection. The contest is purely a sec onal one. The Slavery question is the orly in ac, and the most prominent feature of the is the Kansas Nebraska bill. The nort. The Black Republican party, in their plat. orm, denounce it, and demand its repeal. The Amei. n Convention which met in Philadelphia tion ever adopted by the party, with any pretensions to sound asson the Slavery question, and resolved to ignore that question entirely, and it did adopt aplat'orm in which they too denonnced the repeal of the Missonri Compromise and the passage of the Karsas bill. Mr Fillmore endorses this platform, and in one of speeches made since his return f.om Europe condemned in the strongest langue te therepeal with one voice and one tongue, down with the Kansns-Nebraska bill, and thus echo the sentithe track yesterday near Bellview, when the up train came along. He stood his ground and showed fight—took one tilt at the locomotive, and was knocked into "flinders." Rams should guage of the leading Fillmore paper, "the cause of the one is the cause of the other. Know Nothingism and B ack 'tepublica' iom are indissolubly joined together in holy wedlock." No longer throughout the entire it ever was, but for the purpose of deception and fraud. Their real principle is, the No. h ought to rule America. "Oh, ye l'har ses s, hypocrites, there is no faithfulness in your months, your inward part the meeting, but pill more men were very scarce. Blind men in a dark-lantern cavern have a poor chance to see their way through.

But this is no tall, nor is it the work of it; not withstanding this I might have valid for Mr. Filmore, trusting to his particular and consert alism to rebuke and check this sectional spirit, had the American Party at the South should be kept constantly on hand by every family, as to have it convenient in case of accidents. rather than the voice of duty to their country and the Sorth, and they have therefore cursed the Kan sas bill and its foods, and are continuing to curse it now every day. Some of them openly advocat its repeal—others, more cautions, denounce it as a cheat and a fraud, but say they do not desire to see it repealed. I am at a loss to see how this can be. If they honestly believe the Kansas bill to be a cheat and a fraud, they cannot, as honand a fraud vote for her admission into the Union' llow can they consent to receive stolen property? As houest men they cannot thus consent to cheat the North out of their territory, any sooner than they could consent to cheat a neighbor out of his land, or acquire any of his property hy frandulent and dishonest means. They must, therefore, tote, when the question comes up with their brethren of the North, for the repeal of the Kansas bill and the restoration of the Misson's Comparation of the Misson's Compara estoration of the Missouri Compromise.

A Romance of American Border Life, One Volume, 12mo., Muslin, Price $1 25. Volume, 12mo., Muslin, Price $1 25.

A MERICAN Novelists have of late confined themselves mainly to skitchins of social and domestic life. Taey have anned to produce miniatures and cannot pieces rather than historical pictures. The author of "Saragroon" has chosen a large canvas and has wrought with a holder hand. By placing the scene of his story on what was then the verge of civilization, and portraying characters trans d in 18 the exigencies of border life, he has constructed a narrative fall of starting incident and thrilling adventures without volating the probabilities of history. The hold, cautions wordsman, Sandy lingham, the watchful, incitum Indian, Catfoot, and the willy, revengeful half-breed Joe, will compare lavorably with the best delimations in the "Leatherstocking Tales" of the great American Noveliat. Since Coorea put forth his carlier and better hovels, no American author has written a work of this class possessing merits equal to this tale of life on the borders.

The tule of his book gives us to know at once the nature of its contents. It abounds in incidents of an excitude character. CONTENTS:

Williams's Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir

S. with the atmost connected, offered to the Medical Faculty and the public, for the cure of Dyspepsis or Indigestion, and all diseases arising from it, such as Nausea, Headache, Vetugo, Dumness of Sight, Dehility of the Nervous System, Hypochondria, Jaundice, Loss of Appetite, Wasting of the strength, Flatulence, with frequent belching of Wind, Vitiated taste, Constipation and uneasiness of the bowels, Stations Vomiting, Burning sensation at the pit of the stomach, Liver Complaint, Oppression after eating, Palpitation of the Heart, Pan in the pit of the stomach the right side, Palpitation of the Heart, Pan in the pit of the stomach, or towards the right side,

Pain in the pit of the stomach, or towards the right side, Ballowness of complexion,
Depression of spritts and Irritability of temper, & c.
If a case of dyspepsia should be neglected, most serious effects may ensue, for it lays the foundation for, is the incipient cause of, and very frequently terminates in consumption. I would impress apout the mind that to trife with this disease, may be to sport with that reason which constitutes man super-eminent among animal beings, or to embitter existence by adding a consciousness of folly to the penalty of pain.
This medicine is prepared entirely from vegetable substances; the most deheate atomach can bear it conveniently, and its given with perfect safety, in minute dises to the most tender infants, its properties being of a strengthening and avigorating nature. It is nearly put up in bottles, with ample directions for use.

The following testimonials from some well known and respectable citizens of Philadelphia, are fully corroborative of the tried efficacy of the Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir. Pain in the pit of the stomach, or towards the right side Williams's Anti-Dyspeptic Effizir.

Doctor James Williams:—For several years past, I have been liable to attacks of Dyspepsia; but never have I been more distressingly addicted with its symptoms, than within the last few weeks. Indigestion, nervous irritability, despondency, a sense of weight in the stomach, and were pains in the lett side, rendering me, for the time being, truly wisched. Futuately, I was recommended by a triend to try your Elixir. I did so, and in less than two weeks, indigestion ceased; pain and nervous depression lett me, and appetite, with mental and bodily health, were fully restored. To me the cure seemed almost mirraculous, and my object in writing to you see a hope that other persons suffering the miseries of Dyspepsia will avail themselves of your efficient renedy.

I am, dear sir, yours truly.
